Each adviser requiring access must complete and submit an Adviser Online Access Application Form (ensuring they have signed the Adviser Declaration). Equity Trustees Limited will not accept multiple applications on a single form.

After we receive your form

1. They are checked to ensure that they have been completed correctly.
2. If incomplete or requiring clarification, a representative from Equity Trustees Limited will contact you.
3. Once authentication has been completed, Equity Trustees Limited will send you details explaining how to access your account information online. It will include your Username and Password. This information will be sent to your nominated email address.

After you have received your login details

You may login to access your clients' Account details at any time. When accessing the online system for the first time, you will be prompted to change your Password. You must save the changes and log out. You will then need to log back in using your new Password.

In the interests of protecting the security of access to the online system, Equity Trustees Limited recommends that you change your Password regularly.

 - You and your refers to the Adviser who is completing this form and requesting online access.
2. To view your clients' Account details and related information online, you will need to login to our online access service using your Username and Password.
3. If any person uses your Username and Password, we are entitled to give them access to your clients' Account information and to assume that they are authorised by you to access these details.
4. You must keep your Username and Password confidential and secure. You must tell us immediately if you suspect that any unauthorised person has gained access to your Username or Password.
5. We will use all reasonable efforts to provide you online access to your clients' Account/s at all reasonable times, but we do not guarantee that we can always provide this.
6. We will use reasonable efforts to provide you with reliable information to the extent it is within our control, but we do not guarantee that we can provide it.
7. We are not responsible for transmissions of any computer virus or other unwanted programs or information resulting from or associated with your use of our online access service.
8. We will hold, maintain and store your clients' personal information and will ensure that appropriate measures are in place to prevent unauthorised access to your clients' personal information.
9. You authorise EQT and any other company within the EQT Group and any agents it may appoint to use your clients' personal information for the delivery of our online access service.
10. You acknowledge that anything associated with or available through our online access service belongs to EQT or other third parties and is protected by intellectual property rights.
11. You agree that you will not interfere with or damage any security codes, data or software associated with our online access service.
12. You agree not to access, download or otherwise use any information available through our online access service other than for your individual use.
13. You indemnify us for any loss, expense or liability that we may suffer or incur as a result of any unauthorised use by you of our online access service.
14. Subject to any conditions and warranties implied by law, we exclude any liability for any unavailability or delay in providing any information and for any inaccuracy or incompleteness of any information available through our online access service.
15. You release EQT and any other company within the EQT Group and any of their directors, employees or agents they may appoint from any liabilities you incur or loss that you suffer from your use of our online access service.
16. We may suspend or cancel your online access to your clients' Account/s at any time and for any reason, and if possible, we will give you notice before we do so.
17. We may vary these conditions from time to time and any variation will take effect from the time we notify you of the variation.
18. You may end your use of this service at any time by giving us written notice.
19. Authorised representatives acting as legal representatives (e.g. under Power of Attorney) will be granted full access via these online Accounts.
20. Transactions may take up to 24 hours to process and be available in your clients' Account details.
21. Information available via online access has been completed from information which is believed to be correct and reliable. Care is taken in the preparation of statements, however no liability is accepted by EQT, its directors, employees or representatives for any errors or omissions.
