New appointment at Equity Trustees

Listed financial services company Equity Trustees Limited (EQT) has appointed Caitriona Wortley as key account manager – NSW.

Ms Wortley has over nine years' experience in the financial services industry, most recently with Zurich Investments in Sydney as a business development manager (BDM). She has also worked with LV Asset Management in London as a BDM, and as an equity future trader with Geneva Trading in Dublin and Elite Derivatives in London.

She has a bachelor degree in international finance and French from Dublin City University.

Rowena Cole, EQT's national manager – funds distribution, said that Ms Wortley's appointment is a further step in the business's strategy to grow its distribution in NSW.

"NSW has the largest adviser market in the country and Caitriona's experience and background will help us further expand EQT's approach and offerings in this important market," Ms Cole said.
